BLA Program UW-Madison

Sam Dennis, PhD, ASLA | Chair, BLA Program

- Back in studios!
- Largest incoming class in a decade; we still need support recruiting incoming freshmen
- Largest group of students attending ASLA
  - LAF paid registration for all students
  - Department funded travel and housing (about $3,500)
- Alumni continue to impress. Promoted to principals, partners, and directors. LARE pass rate is high. Job offers are increasing. More available internships than we have students to fill them.
- Finally, look for us at the UW alumni tailgate in Nashville. Everyone is welcome, regardless of alma mater.
- SAVE THE DATE: Jensen-Longenecker Banquet Friday, April 22, Memorial Union (room TBA)

The background of the slide features abstract, overlapping geometric shapes in various shades of green, ranging from light lime to dark forest green. These shapes are primarily located on the right side of the slide, creating a modern, dynamic feel.

ASLA Strategic Plan Update

“Finding our future”

- How does the ASLA Fund evolve?
- How to we better serve our members?
- How do we better advocate for the profession?
- How do we bring more awareness to the profession?

Proactive

Breaking outside the echo chambers

Reaching to our members instead of pulling them to us

ASLA's Racial Equity Plan of Action (March 2020)

“ASLA rejects bigotry and racism in all its forms, and anti-Black racism in particular, as wrong and fundamentally inconsistent with our mission and values.”

ASLA's Five-point Plan:

- 1) Diversifying the Pipeline: Equipping Our Students and Institutions to Lead in This Work
- 2) Acknowledging Racism in the Profession and Honoring the Forgotten: Making It Clear Where We Stand and Where We Aim to Go
- 3) Reshaping the Conversation and Transforming Frameworks: Establishing Enduring Structures for the Journey Ahead
- 4) Leading Through Education, Conversation, and Policy: Developing and Disseminating Content on Advancing Racial Equity
- 5) Accountability: Maintaining Meaningful, Measurable Progress

SKILLED | ED

Barbara Wyatt, PLA, ASLA

Leadership & Management

- During Barbara's 40+ years in federal, state, and local governments, in her consulting practice, and in volunteer efforts for professional groups, she has integrated cultural landscapes into the nation's historic preservation consciousness, laws, and programs.
- Her advocacy, mentorship, publications, and symposiums have positioned landscape architects in the national dialogue as important landscape historians, stewards, interpreters, and technical experts in the nation's historic preservation initiatives.
- She organized the National Register Landscape Initiative and published the proceedings, which convened some 50 preservationists from tribal, federal, and state historic preservation offices to discuss cultural landscape achievements and future visions.
- She spearheaded the National Maritime Cultural Landscape Symposium which reinforced the role of landscape architects in addressing the effects of climate change on maritime cultural resources and working collaboratively with archaeologists, tribal representatives, and scientists.
